To the extent any response is required to any paragraph of Cheetah Omni's Prayer for Relief, including without limitation its unnumbered paragraph and paragraphs it has labeled A-P, Alcatel-Lucent denies that Cheetah Omni is entitled to any of the requested relief and denies any allegations of its Prayer for Relief. Alcatel-Lucent further denies each and every allegation in the Amended Complaint to which it has not specifically responded.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

This paragraph sets forth Cheetah Omni's request for a trial by jury of any and all issues triable of right before a jury to which no response is required.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Subject to the responses above, Alcatel-Lucent alleges and asserts the following defenses in response to the allegations, undertaking the burden of proof only as to those defenses deemed affirmative defenses by law and without reducing or removing Cheetah Omni's burden of proof on its affirmative claims against Alcatel-Lucent, regardless of how such defenses are denominated herein. In addition to the affirmative defenses described below, subject to its responses above, Alcatel-Lucent specifically reserves all rights to allege additional affirmative defenses that become known through the course of discovery.

1. Alcatel-Lucent does not infringe and has not infringed, either directly or indirectly, any valid and enforceable claim of the '661, '459, '647, or '479 patents, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents.

2. The claims of the '661, '459, '647, or '479 patents are invalid and/or unenforceable for failure to satisfy one or more of the requirements of 35 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq., including but not limited to 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, 103 and 112.

3. Cheetah Omni is estopped, based on statements, representations, and admissions made during prosecution of the applications that led to the '661, '459, '647, or '479 patents from asserting any interpretation of the claims of those patents that would be broad enough to cover any of Alcatel-Lucent's products or methods alleged to infringe those patents, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents.

4. Cheetah Omni's claims are barred, in whole in part, by the doctrine of waiver (express or implied), laches, acquiescence, estoppel, and/or equitable estoppel.

5. Cheetah Omni is not entitled to injunctive relief under any theory, including without limitation, because any alleged injury to Cheetah Omni is no immediate or irreparable, Cheetah Omni has an adequate remedy at law, and/or public policy concerns weigh against any injunctive relief.

6. Any claim by Cheetah Omni for damages is limited by 35 U.S.C. §§ 286 or 287. Cheetah Omni is barred by 35 U.S.C. § 288 from recovering costs associated with this action.

7. Alcatel-Lucent reserves the right to amend its Answer to add additional Affirmative Defenses under Rule 8(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Patent Laws of the United States, and any other defenses, at law and equity (including but not limited to instances of inequitable conduct, unclean hands, patent misuse, and/or implied license) as they become known throughout the course of discovery in this case. Assertion of a defense is not a concession that Alcatel-Lucent has the burden of proving the matter asserted.
